Special Notices.

Whereas, the Governor of the State, in accordance with an aproved custom, has appointed ThURSDAY, the 24th day of November intel. to be kept and observed by the people of this State as a day of general Thanagiving and Frayer, new I, Daniel F. Tiemann, Mayor of the tity of New-York, do hereby carneedly recommend to our citizens the observance of test day for worship and praise to Almighty God for all the great and manifold blessings He has bestowed in His good Providence on our city and its imbabitant during the part year. The harvests of the land have been pieuteous, and our people have enjoyed in abundance the fruits of the earth, and have been exempt from the ravages of pestilence, and our city has been favored in a remarkable degree with the blessing of neath; peace has reigned within our horders, and the desolations of war have been kept from us. For these great blessings and mercies, as well as others, it should be our duty at all times to offer our heartfelt thenks to our Heavenly Father; but especially on the day set spart by the Chief Magistrate of the State should we publicly join in our secriptions of praise and thankegiving.

I would also recommend a cessation from our usual abor and employments on that day, and the uniting of acts of mercy and charity to the destitute and needy with our worship and praise.

In testimony whereof I have betreunto set my hand and caused the Mayoraity Seal of the City of New-York to be affixed this ainsetcenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty nine.

DANIEL F. TIEMANN, Mayor.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"We have here a truthful and vividly aketched portraiture of the machine "education" given in some of our most fashionable seminaries, and its blighting and drooping effects upon its subjects. The pupils of Marvel Hall represent quite a class of the rising generation, and in this respect the work before us can scarcely be called a fiction. There is a continued thread of interest in it, leading irresistibly along from page to page, from chapter one to the conclusion, and the moral it conveys gleans through it at every line. The plot is perfectly natural, and the smitment it breathes and the characters it magnifies unexceptionable. We bespeak for it a wide-spread acceptance."—[Troy Dally Budget.

From the Rev. Wm. H. Millburn.

"I have no ho itation in saying that few books have ever interested me more than liculab. The plot, the delineation of character and the action, I think, are all admirable. It would be an extraordinary book from the hand of any woman, but it is peculiarly so from one so young. The reading of it cannot but do great good."
